

DRESS GOODS SALE

OVER SIXTY PIECES INCLUDED

A Dress Goods Sale right in the midst of one of the best dress goods seasons we have had in years. Every season even though we use our best judgement, we make some mistakes in buying—who wouldn't out of two or three hundred selections make a mistake once in a while? After a few weeks showing we can determine the slow numbers. To close them we make a sale early in the season when dress goods are in demand—here is the story, it'll stand a careful reading and a thorough investigation.

50c and 59c Dress Goods 38c
$1.00 and $1.25 Dress Goods 79c

Some very nice cloths, pretty weaves and pleasing patterns may be found in the lots—splendid for suits, dresses, skirts, children's dresses and coats. These are all out on counters by themselves, where it will be easy to make your selections. Like all special sales at this store, it's best to make your selections early. Perhaps you know this from experience.

Jesse Cayhne met with an accident late yesterday afternoon which came near causing the loss of the sight in his right eye. He was splitting wood when a stick flew and struck him in the eye, cutting the lid and surrounding parts.

At the opera house next Friday evening there will be a wrestling match between Eli E. Bourdon of Claremont, N. H., and Jack Grace of New York. On Oct. 28th these men met at Claremont and Bourdon won after wrestling one hour and twenty-five minutes. Bourdon weighed eight pounds more than his opponent. For this match each man must weigh not over 150 pounds.

A. H. Buzzell of this city and Arthur W. Daley of Montpelier went to Burlington to-day to make arrangements for an interstate bowling league for the winter. The idea is to have eight teams of three men each to bowl big pins. The make-up of the teams will probably include two teams from Flannigan's alleys and two from the Elkan Allen club at Burlington, two from Daley's alleys at Montpelier and two from Buzzell's alleys in this city. The trophy to be played for is the state league cup, which is now held by the Barre team.

Mrs. J. Morfio, whose husband was killed last summer by falling from an electric car at Benjamin Falls, leaves to-night for Italy, where she will visit at her old home for an indefinite period.

The Italian Athletic club basketball team will play its first game of the season with the newly organized Vulcans team in the Socialist hall on Granite street Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

"A Great Wrong Righted," a clever dramatic picture with a new plot and good action, is the star attraction at the popular Theatorium to-day. "A Gentleman of Leisure" brings many laughs. "The Wandering Musician" tells a good story and "The Scandinavian North," shows beautiful winter scenery. Mr. Geo. Harrington sings, "Good Evening, Caroline," this program proves a good drawing card, as was proven by the large crowds that attended last evening. Mr. Crahan has a swell treat for his patrons Wednesday and Thursday.

These men will wrestle best two in three, catch-as-catch-can, pin falls, Fox's rules to govern.
In a recent match at Claremont, Bourdon won, but weighed 8 pounds more than his opponent. For this match each man must weigh in at 150 pounds.
There will be a preliminary bout between two local men.

PRICES: 35c and 50c. Four Front Rows, 75c.
Tickets at Kendrick's Wednesday morning.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

Cate Real Estate agency, Bolster block, Barre, Vt.

Henri Bernstein, the author of "The Thief," is the leading dramatist of France to-day. Although well under forty, he has written nearly a dozen plays of almost equal merit. "The Thief" has given him his greatest fame, however, because its incidents might happen in any household in the civilized world. As a result of this adaptability, it has been played all over Europe and in five or six different languages. Its American career was begun last season in the Lyceum theatre, New York, where it was so well liked that it ran for ten months. It will be played next Monday evening, Oct. 26th, at the opera house.
